

The Priddy Bellringing team have kept in contact throughout the pandemic and hope to return to ringing as soon as regulations allow and it is safe to do so. Young ringers and people wanting to learn bellringing are always extremely welcome and please ask anyone interested to contact me for further details.

Alison Moody